

EXTENDED LIFE FLUID END COMPONENTS FOR FRAC PUMPS

iAlloys designs and manufactures products that extend the life and improve the performance of equipment critical to our customer's success.

iAlloys Fluid End Components have been engineered to provide maximum life and performance as compared to standard steel seats.

iAlloys Fluid End Components work to reduce operating costs and increase efficiency resulting in greater equipment utilization and profitability.

iAlloys Fluid End Components are available in P4 and P5 sizes and fully customizable to your specifications.

Fully integrated manufacturing - material to finished product
Minimize equipment downtime and maximizing efficiency
Just In Time delivery from our Houston, TX warehouse
Engineered to provide maximum performance
Minimum 10X life versus steel components
ISO quality standards and certification

tel 713.574.8242 | fax 888.480.9698

INTERSTITIAL ALLOYS LLC

5444 Westheimer Rd. Suite 1400 | Houston, Texas 77056 USA

